

Marcus P. Hoffmann

march@securitybanks-trust.com

Senior Vice President – Trust Officer Investment Management & Trust

Marc joined Security Bank & Trust Co. in 2017, bringing over 22 years of financial services industry experience. Marc's expertise is in the areas of income, gift, and trust and estate taxation, along with experience in trust and estate administration for high net worth individuals.

Marc has provided tax and fiduciary services for his clients as a Senior Client Advisor at Robins Kaplan LLP, and as a Financial Consultant for Fiduciary Counselling, Inc. This experience gives Marc an understanding of a clients' total financial picture.

A Twin Cities native, Marc earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting from St. John's University. He lives in Excelsior with his wife, Kristin, and their two children. He enjoys golfing, fishing, and coaching his children's baseball and hockey teams.

Volunteer Activities: Marc has been instrumental in fundraising for Ducks Unlimited, St. John the Baptist Catholic School, and St. Therese Catholic School.